

COGNITIVE DOMAIN: Knowledge; what graduates will know.

Knowledge and Comprehension

Application

- ◆ Apply knowledge and skills of various administrative procedures, such as bookkeeping, claims processing and medical records management.
- ◆ Use appropriate medical terminology
- ◆ Computer skills with proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- ◆ Oral and communication skills
- ◆ An understanding of ethical, legal, and professional rules of conduct required by CAAHEP.

Analysis, Synthesis & Evaluation

- ◆ Identify and evaluate ethical, professional, and legal issues affecting patient outcomes.
- ◆ Educate patient, family, and/or caregivers about healthcare-related issues.
- ◆ Collect and effectively evaluate sources of information.

AFFECTIVE DOMAIN: Attitude; growth in feelings or emotional areas.

- ◆ Demonstrate a commitment to ongoing professional development.
- ◆ Demonstrate professionalism
- ◆ Interpersonal skills/teamwork

PSYCHOMOTOR DOMAIN: Skills; manual or physical

- ◆ Demonstrate an understanding and appropriate application of computer technology.
- ◆ Apply knowledge and skills of various clinical procedures such as vitals, lab testing, basic anatomy and physiology, triage and other diagnostic and medical procedures.